

(154)

ND

O R D E R anent the Rebels of the Bais.

April 13. 1693.

THE Lords of their Majesties Privy Council being informed, that there are several Persons gone into the Bais, since the Rebels therein were Charged to Deliver up the same for their Majesties Service, and themselves to their Majesties Mercy; Therefore the saids Lords Do hereby give Order and Warrant to an Herald, with his Coat Displayed, and a Trumpeter to go to the Bais, or as near as he can safely, and in their Majesties Names and Authority, Command and Charge the Persons presently within the said Island, to Deliver up themselves and the Island in manner foresaid, within the space of six Days, next after they are Charged, under the pain of high Treason; And appoints Sir James Ogilvy, their Majesties Solicitor to dispatch the Herald and Trumpeter, with famous Persons to be witnesses, and cause furnish a Boat to them; and in case they obey not, then to Denunce them, and thereafter that Letters of Intercommuning be direct against them as effectors: And in the mean time the saids Lords Do hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds Sterling, to any Person or Persons who shall seise upon, and deliver to any of their Majesties Judges, Magistrates, or Officers of their Majesties Forces, the persons of Lieutenant Colonel Grahame, or Michael Middleton Governour of the Bais, two of the Rebels in the said Island; and the sum of Twenty Pounds Sterling, to any person or persons, who shall seise upon, and deliver in manner foresaid, any of the persons after-named, Rebels in the said Island, viz. James, John and William Middletons, the Governours Brothers, Duncan Macqueen, Thomas Hepburn, John Turine, Mr. Hemison, John Maclean, Morine the Chyrurgeon, an Englishman, Nicolson, John Gladestones, Gawin Johnston, Lieutenant John Hacket, John Hacket Sea-man, two Irish Sea-men, another Irish Sea-man, two boyboyes that belonged to the Earl of Leven, Colonel Grahames Servant, three or four more Servants, and John Manderson, Charles Maitland Servant, detained against his will. And Appoints this Presents to be Printed, and Published at the Mercat. Cross of Edinburgh, and other places needful.

God save King William and Queen Mary.